

Getting Unstuck: Trust Repair Strategies

2017 Federation of Tax Administrator's Conference

Dr. Wendy Fraser, Fraser Consulting, LLC

Trust matters because...

Our entire system of daily living – the social order depends on trust – buying groceries, educating children, going to the doctor, paying taxes – almost all decisions involve trusting someone else.

Reflect

1. Personal Reflection

- What just happened?
- Why am I feeling this way?
- What bothers me the most about the situation?
- Can I see the situation from another angle?

“ People have a tendency to talk about what other’s do.

But, we need to look at ourselves first.

Jones, 2015

If your stuck...

The Zeigarnik Effect states that people remember uncompleted or interrupted tasks better than completed tasks

Bluma Zeigarnik, 1921

9

What does this mean for trust?

We replay in our minds moments when we experienced trust violations.

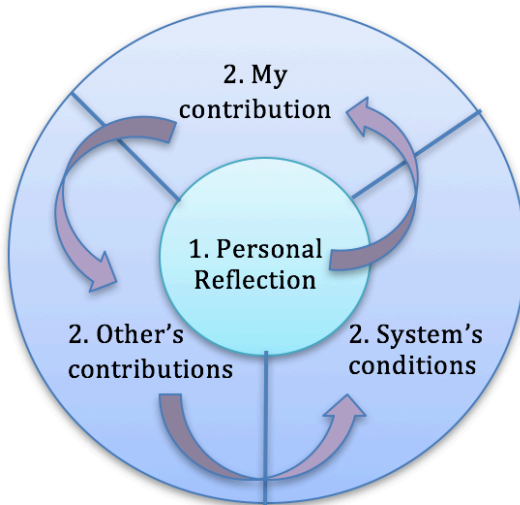

It takes energy, time, and erodes our ability to focus on other things.

Bluma Zeigarnik, 1921

Reflect

- What did I do to contribute?
- What did others contribute?
- What is happening in the group or organization that is affecting us?

Repair

Repairing trust takes courage

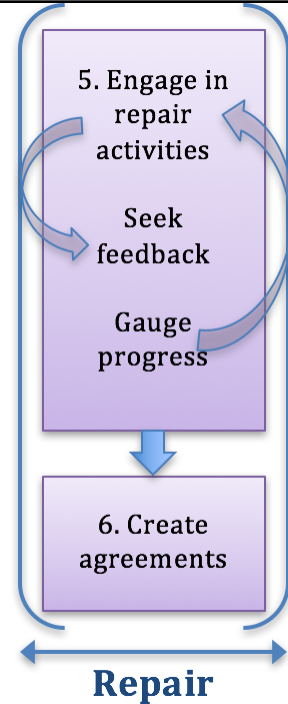

And a mindset that human beings can evolve and change...

The question becomes:

Who do I want to be today?

Be intentional... Repair is a choice.

How does it serve me to hold onto the past? What do I need to move forward?

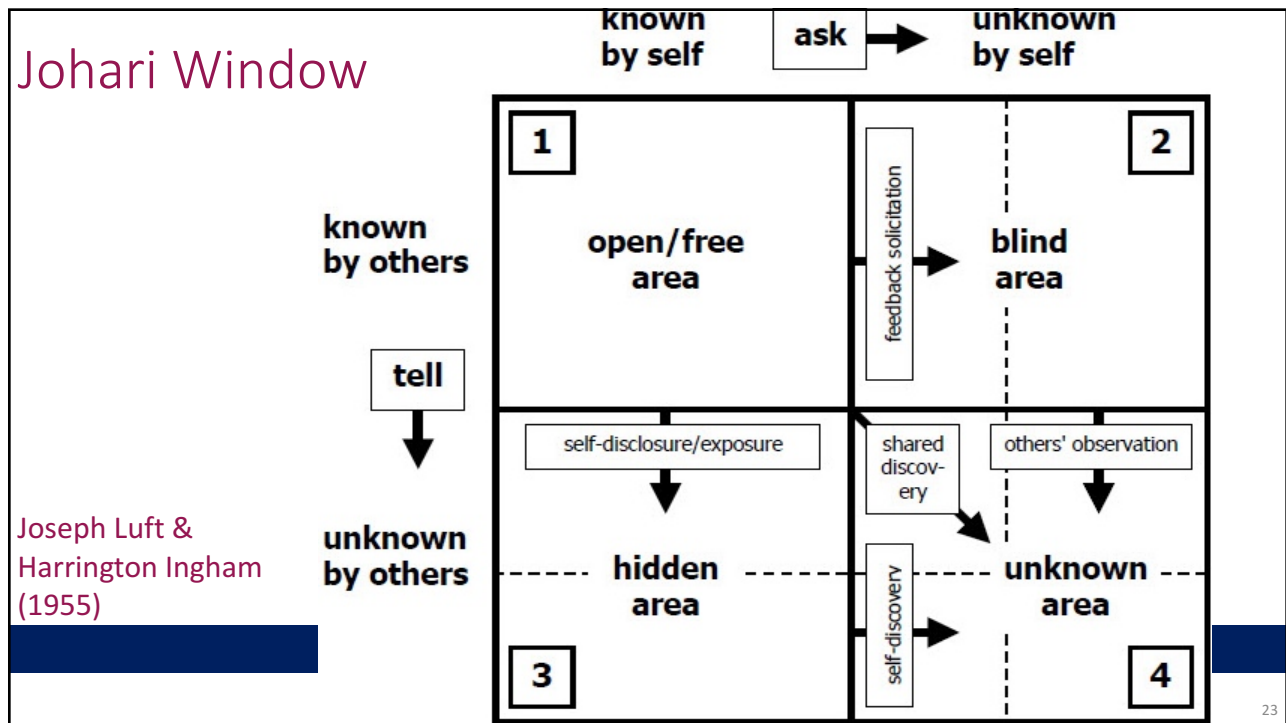

21

Train people for understanding rather than agreement.

In pairs...

Describe an important experience in your life and explain how that experience affects your values and behavior today.

Research: The Art of the Apology

(Lewicki, Polin, & Lount, 2016)

1. An expression of regret for the offense... “I’m sorry”
2. An explanation of why the offense occurred
3. An acknowledgement of responsibility for causing the offense
4. A declaration of “repentance” that the violator will not repeat the offense
5. An offer to repair whatever damage may have been caused by the offense
6. A request for forgiveness for having committed the offense

25

Evolve

- 7. Move Forward
- Forgive
- Learn, grow, and evolve
- Honor agreements
- Appreciate

Having looked the past in the eye, having asked for forgiveness and having made amends, let us shut the door on the past—not in order to forget it but in order not to allow it to imprison us.

(Desmond Tutu)
